

SENSITISATION OF FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS ON COMPLIANCE WITH COMMON REPORTING STANDARD IN NIGERIA

The Federal Inland Revenue Service has scheduled a series of digital events to engage with reporting entities and their tax advisers, with a view to educating them on the Automatic Exchange of information's (AEOI) legal provisions, reporting process and use of the Common Reporting Standards infrastructure.

Themed 'Sensitisation of Financial Institutions on Compliance with Common Reporting Standard in Nigeria', the sessions are due to hold on 4th & 5th August, 2020, bringing together regulatory authorities, Chief Executives of financial institutions, compliance officers and tax practitioners.

To register attendees, please send a list stating the name of your organisation as well as the names, email addresses and phone numbers of the participants to aeoi.seminar@firs.gov.ng.

DISCLAIMER

This update is for general information only and does not constitute legal advice.

UDO UDOMA &
BELO-OSAGIE

Manage Subscriptions

[Privacy
Policy](#)

Contact Us

Unsubscribe

Sent to: [] | View this email online

Visit our website to access publications on a broad range of legal topics