Daniel Adedigba is an Associate in the firm's Dispute Resolution and Mining teams.

Daniel has been involved in a wide range of matters, including commercial litigation, arbitration, regulatory advisory, and corporate transactions.

Daniel has been involved in advising on mining transactions and operations across Nigeria, including issues relating to mineral title administration, host community engagement, and compensation frameworks. He also represents clients in complex commercial disputes and provides strategic advisory support on regulatory and operational risks within the mining industry.

He is currently part of the team representing a mineral title holder in a dispute involving competing claims and advises on strategies relating to boundary demarcation and enforcement of mining rights.
